bodem vreemd

The image consists of four vertical panels showing the progression of soil development. The first panel on the left shows dark, moist, organic-rich soil. The second panel shows a transition to a lighter, more structured soil. The third panel shows a light-colored, sandy soil with vertical roots. The fourth panel on the right shows a light-colored, sandy soil with horizontal cracks. The text 'Ontwikkeling van kleigronden' is overlaid on the bottom of the panels.
